

Visit Lawrence Park in downtown Morgan City for some active play at the playground.

Afterwards walk to the "Great Wall," a 21-foot sea-wall. Built for flood protection, visitors can climb up for a bird's eye view of the traffic in the Atchafalaya River, one of the busiest rivers in the state.

Next travel to the International Petroleum Museum & Exposition, the Mr. Charlie. Kids will enjoy learning about the oil industry on this retired oil rig and the many ways oil is used in everyday products.

From Downtown Morgan City, travel to the Louisiana State Museum in Patterson. Kids will enjoy the interactive exhibits in its Wedell-Williams Aviation collection and the Cypress Sawmill collection. Enjoy a picnic lunch on the grounds of the Cajun Coast Visitors & Convention Bureau, lunch at Atchafalaya Golf Course clubhouse or one of our local restaurants.

After lunch, climb aboard Cajun Jack's Swamp Tour for a boat trip into the Atchafalaya Basin, the largest overflow swamp in the U.S. and home to abundant wildlife.

If time permits, travel to Franklin to tour Grevemberg House Museum or Oaklawn Manor, for a glimpse into 19th century life.

From Franklin, travel to Charenton to tour the Chitimacha Museum. The Chitimacha were the first settlers to the area and lived in and around the Atchafalaya Basin. The museum documents their history, culture and their efforts in preservation.
